

Time limited - Non Benefitted Position

This position will be open until filled

Women, Infants and Children (WIC), a division of the Health Department has the following position available:

Public Health Nutritionist - WIC

The candidate selected for this position must be available to work: Monday and Tuesday 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM, Wednesday 9:30 AM to 6:30 PM, Thursday & Friday 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM. Spanish Preferred. The position will be for 8-20 hours per week and does not have benefits. Must be willing to travel to outlying clinics. Valid Drivers license required.

Salary Range will be determined by experience and qualifications.

Entry pay for this position is $16.50 with completed Bachelors or Master's Degree.

Additional experience and or internship would start at a higher pay level.

Duties will include:

Evaluates anthropometric and biochemical data and medical and nutritional history to determine client's eligibility for WIC services.

Identifies and documents nutritional risk factors and educational needs of clients and develops nutrition care plans for clients.

Provides nutritional counseling and class instruction for various needs: pregnancy, breastfeeding, infants and small children, postpartum, teen mothers, substance abuse, general nutrition, and other health issues and documents nutritional counseling and progress towards nutritional goals in computer data base.

Provides specialized nutritional counseling, medical nutrition therapy, class instruction and follow-up for medically and nutritionally compromised clients.

Obtains appropriate specialized formula for clients in consultation with physicians, State WIC staff, pharmacies, and vendors.

If interested in this position:

Please submit Utah County application and credentials to -

Kohar Oshier

or RaNae Powell

151 S. University Ave. Suite 2100, Provo, UT. 84606

For questions call 801-851-7319