

Websites and Resources for Kids Voting

<https://bensguide.gpo.gov/> Ben's Guide: US Government for Kids. These pages/games explain the process for Federal Officials.

<https://www.kidsvotingusa.org/> Kids' Voting USA: This website provides children a chance to vote online.

<https://home.treasury.gov/services/education> US Treasury: Educational Resources for Students and Educators.

<https://www.fbi.gov/fbi-kids> FBI Kids: Cyber safety for young Americans

<https://www.epa.gov/students> US Environmental Protection Agency: Explorer's Club. This site allows children to learn about the environment and ways to keep it safe for the future.

<https://www.rockthevote.org/> Rock the Vote: is a program that has teamed up with MTV and has given young adults the information and outlet to voice their views about the voting process.

<https://www.pbs.org/parents/lets-vote> Let's Vote: Guide for parents to help children learn about fairness and making decisions as a group.

<https://lawforkids.org/kids-voting-az> Kid's Voting Arizona: Arizona's website for kids voting affiliated with Kids Voting.

<https://www.icivics.org/games> iCivics: games about elections, government and more.

<https://classroommagazines.scholastic.com/election/quizzes.html#> Scholastic Election related quizzes.