If this account (and aggregate value of multiple accounts that are associated with this ownership) has a total market value of $27,000 or less, then you qualify for this exemption.

Provided on Schedule A (enclosed) is a list of the personal property the county currently has associated with this account. The “Percent Good” column has been updated with the 2023 depreciation rates and a new market value calculated.

If you have purchased additional business personal property associated with this account, you may still qualify. Fill out the forms and if the market value remains less than $27,000 complete the front of this application and return it with the other documents or file online.

If you have any questions concerning this exemption application, please call the Utah County Personal Property Division at (801) 851-8295.

This exemption is not automatic, a taxpayer must annually apply for this exemption by due date of the filing.
